

Classroom vs. Online – Reliability Green Belt

	Classroom Training	Online Training
How long does the training last?	5 days, all day (see Agenda as pdf download)	10 days, half days (see Agenda as pdf download)
How is the exam conducted?	2 hours at the last day of the classroom training	2 hours online, after the training
Where does the training take place?	in the Stuttgart area, Germany	online as a combination of webinars and self-learning
How much does the training cost?	3,300.00 EUR plus VAT (incl. certification fee)	2,800.00 EUR plus VAT (incl. certification fee)
What additional costs have to be considered?	travel expenses and hotel accommodation	none
How does the exchange with the trainer take place?	in direct contact during the classroom training	during the webinars in direct contact or via chat and email between the webinars
How much time does a participant have for his / her individual recap and exam preparation?	after each training day from around 5:15 p.m.	between the scheduled webinars and before the exam
How can a participant clarify his / her individual questions with the trainer?	in direct contact during the classroom training	During the webinars in direct contact or via chat and email. Q&A webinars are also planned after self-learning modules.
What learning materials do the participants receive?	training documents including exercises and solutions in paper form and as printable pdf files, calculation templates, Minitab exercises and solutions	training documents including exercises and solutions as printable pdf files, calculation templates, Minitab exercises and solutions access to online content (videos, quizzes) for the duration of the training
How is the individual learning pace dealt with?	The trainer can address individual weaknesses and questions during the classroom training.	The participant can work through the online material at his / her own pace. Live webinars are recorded and are then available as videos via the LMS for the duration of the training.

	Classroom Training	Online Training
		The participants can view the content available in the LMS as often as they want.
How are exercises done?	During the classroom training, exercises are solved by the participants. The trainer is available in the event of problems. Exercise solutions are also included in the documents.	After each learning video, the participant receives quizzes and exercises with solutions. Questions can be directed to the trainer via chat or email, or during the scheduled Q&A-webinars.
Are there repetitions (recapitulations) of the subject matter?	Not planned, because the trainer will address individual learning weaknesses during the classroom training.	The participants can view the content available in the LMS as often as they want. In addition, regular Q&A webinars are planned in which the trainer summarizes the self-learning content, and the participants can ask questions.
Which learning controls are there?	No specific, the trainer addresses individual learning weaknesses during the classroom training.	The participant takes the online-quizzes and the additional exercises contained in the LMS and thus receives feedback on his / her individual learning progress.